MARK’S MUSINGS

As I write this column on the last Monday of August, my mind keeps going back to yesterday morning. We celebrated with Mike and Amy Simmons the dedication of Addison. We watched as children and youth received certificates from Sunday School classes from which they now have promoted. And I was struck once again by the responsibility we all have for passing along the faith. Psalm 78 2-3 reads like this in The Message:

I’m chewing on the morsel of a proverb;
I’ll let you in on the sweet old truths,
Stories we heard from our fathers,
counsel we learned at our mother’s knee.
We’re not keeping this to ourselves,
we’re passing it along to the next generation—
God’s fame and fortune,
the marvelous things he has done.

Ours is a holy responsibility and a wonderful privilege. What will it require for us to be faithful at this task? It will ask us to recognize that we pass on our faith in both what we say and what we do. So let’s live out our faith in vibrant, grace-filled ways. We’ll have many opportunities to do that together this fall, and each of us can do that day by day. It will also require a serious commitment—a commitment of time, energy, resources, and prayer. But there’s no better investment than investing in our children. It is an investment in the future, an investment of hope, and an act of trust in God’s eternal faithfulness.

Grace and peace,
Mark

Mission Project Update

A called meeting was held on August 8th to discuss a donation to the Baptist Children’s Home in Thomasville. It was decided that we send $125 to help with back to school needs for a child at the Home.

Thank you for everyone who participated in the preparation and delivery of homemade cookies to the Hospice Home in W-S on Monday, August 13th. Please keep in mind we are the only church that provides this service on a regular monthly basis. This is our way of saying to the families visiting their loved ones we are thinking of them by way of this “comfort” food.

At the regular monthly meeting on September 5th, both the WOM and Baptist Men will have the pleasure of hearing Jean Foster share with us about her recent mission trip to Gulfport, MS. Please plan to attend.

May we in the upcoming church year continue to follow Christ’s examples as UNION CROSS REACHES OUT TO SHOW HIS LOVE.
