Mark's Musings

I'm writing this column on the first day of the new school year. This morning Union Cross Elementary was abuzz with activity. Students, parents, teachers—all are getting into the rhythm of a new year. I understand that the parents of kindergarteners even had a "Boo Hoo Breakfast" to help ease the parental trauma of that first day of real school. (For other parents, the first day of school might be the occasion for a "Yahoo! Breakfast," but that's another matter.)

Amid all the hustle and bustle is the simple fact. This is a time to learn. And there is much to learn. That seems so very obvious when we look at children. But sometimes grownups can forget that we, too, have much to learn. We have much to learn at the feet of the Teacher—much to learn about God, much to learn about life, much to learn about ourselves. We haven't graduated from that school, and we never will. The education we need is not only about gaining knowledge, though that is helpful, too. But beyond knowledge, may we continue to learn wisdom and grace and compassion as we follow the Christ who shows us the way, the Christ who is the Way.

Grace and peace,
Mark

Senior Moments Highlights

Events for this month: We're on the road again. On September 2nd, we will be going to the "Wohlfahrt haus Dinner Theater" in Wytheville, VA. We will leave the church at 9:30am. And don't forget "Senior Adult Day" will be held on Sunday, September 12th. Our Senior Adults will be taking part in our 11:00 a.m. worship service.

Serenity Pointe Neighborhood Watch Program is having a Bicycle Safety and Obstacle Course on Sept. 19th, at 3:00pm here at the church. It will be presented by Larry Handy & Co., and Forsyth County Sheriff's Community Watch Department. Elementary & Middle school children must bring their bikes and helmets. High school and college teens can try their skill at the "Fatal Vision" course. Hot dogs, chips, and beverages will be served while they last, so plan to bring the entire family. Please RSVP with how many are in your party by September 10th to Dbeekman@LiftOne.net or ucbaptist@bellsouth.net. For more information please see David Beekman.

The Women on Mission had another joint meeting with Baptist Men on August 4 and discussed current & upcoming mission projects following our prayer time.

On Sunday, August 8th, cookies and other quick food items were delivered to Hospice Homes in Winston-Salem and High Point. Our next Cookies for Hospice Sunday will be

September 5th, but cookies and other items should be brought to the church by Sunday morning services since there will be no evening service. As always, if you cannot bake cookies, other quick lunch or breakfast items are needed as well. Circle this date on your calendar now.

In order to continue with our annual summertime event called "Sundaes on Sunday", some of our ladies and men volunteered to visit our shut-ins during August to deliver ice cream. Most importantly, we will let those folks know that we still care for them although they are no longer able to attend our services. Please keep our shut-ins in your thoughts and prayers.

Don and Delbert delivered the items collected to Senior Services and we are very pleased to report there were a total of 89 items (this number does not include all the items that were already prepackaged in multiples). Thank you to everyone who participated in making this such a successful venture!

During August we were busy collecting back to school items for underprivileged children at Union Cross Elementary.

Our September project will be sponsorship of the Simmons Family Fundraiser Luncheon which will be held immediately following worship service on September 12th. The entire cost of the meal will be covered by the WOM and Baptist Men with all proceeds going directly into the Simmons Fund. This meal will be by donations, rather than a fixed price. Plan now to join us in order to make this another successful event.

Our next meeting will be September 1st, and we hope to see all ladies join us, and all men in the Baptist Men's meeting.

As we start a new church year, may our community see a renewed commitment as UNION CROSS REACHES OUT TO SHOW HIS LOVE.

We need your help to stay in touch with young adults! If you have a child or grandchild who is away at school and you want UCBC to stay in touch with him or her, please email a current address and phone number to erin@unioncrossbaptist.org or ucbaptist@bellsouth.net. Contact info changes often with people in this stage of life, so please take the time to make sure we have the most current info for your family members!
